

About Let's Ask America:

- Let's Ask America is a game show for the Internet age. Contestants with big personalities compete for cash prizes from their homes via webcams.
- Producers select four contestants to compete in each half-hour game for the chance to win up to $35,000. Let's Ask America polls America about humorous and irreverent topics to find out what people are thinking. All the contestants have to do is correctly predict the answer.
- If you think you know the answer to this question, you could be perfect for the show and have a chance to win thousands of dollars, all from your home!

What do single men say is the biggest lie women tell them?

- I'll be ready in 5 minutes
- I'm not mad at you
- I'm okay with a casual relationship
